

Poultry – Pullorum Typhoid Control

All poultry (except waterfowl) being exhibited at a fair must test negative for Pullorum within 90 days of the fair or originate from a US Pullorum Typhoid clean flock or a flock which has had a negative official test in the previous two years. Documentation must be presented to the volunteer veterinarian. Waterfowl do not require any testing or certification. Please contact the 4-H Office if your bird needs to be tested.