

Nutrition Resource Educator (.5 FTE)

Position Summary:

- Develop, implement, and evaluate direct and specialized community education in the nutrition, health, and/or consumer education field.
- Contribute leadership, educational resource support, and input into program evaluation, grants/contracts, marketing, program supervision, and program development.
- Provide leadership for the implementation of Food & Nutrition Education in Communities program (ESNY!) for low income audiences.
- Provide subject matter resources that connect Cornell faculty and regional and state efforts to local priorities. Represent the Association as a resource educator for nutrition, health, and/or consumer education.
- Work collaboratively with a variety of community agencies to address community nutrition issues.

Special Requirements:

- Access to adequate transportation. Must be willing to work flexible schedule including some evenings, weekends, and overnight travel.

Degree & Experience Requirements:

- Master's Degree with subject-matter specialization in nutrition/health required; RD or CDN desirable. Two years related experience desired. Experience in community nutrition/health education highly desirable.

Applications will be reviewed beginning on 2/15/12, or until an acceptable pool of applicants has been identified. Apply online at <https://cornellu.taleo.net/careersection/10163/jobdetail.ftl?lang=en&job=16678>. Contact Connie Kan at ck236@cornell.edu or 607-255-0789 for questions. Individuals who bring a diverse perspective and are supportive of diversity are strongly encouraged to apply. EOE.

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension
Livingston County

*Cornell Cooperative Extension
Livingston County provides equal employment and program opportunities.*